

Working TOGETHER

As a Glass Expansion employee it is a requirement that you accept & embrace the company's core values as a process of maintaining our company culture that results in a harmonious & peaceful workplace for everyone's pleasure.

Honesty

- Be truthful to others
- Be truthful to yourself
- Do what's right regardless of who is around

Decency

- Be fair & respectful
- Be nice & well mannered
- Have patience & understanding for others

Trust

- Believe in others to do what is right for you
- Believe in yourself & do what's right for others
- Treasure the trust that people have in you

These values are some ethical & universal principles of life which will surely serve to benefit your work & personal relationships. It is our belief that these values should be lived by everyone, everywhere.

If you believe any person is not treating you with any of the above values then that person may be in breach of our "Working Together Policy", please tell them to calm down & remind them of our company principles.

Glass Expansion promotes the principles of merit & fairness in its employee practices. This means people are selected because they are the 'best person for the job'.
